
Applies each model's measured shortlist penalty, which is the same for women and men, to pools in which women carry the signal more often. Below 0.8 = adverse impact under the four-fifths rule.